Representation in the expert group

Each member of the association can nominate someone for the expert group. Only persons who are employed by a member of the association or an affiliate are authorized to represent the respective institute. Furthermore, the person representing the institute in the expert group should have a place of work in Switzerland, especially because of the intended exchange of data and information. External consultants and service providers (e.g. IT service providers in the context of outsourcing) are not permitted in the expert group.

We nominate the following person as our representative in the expert group:
